

PrimePath Networks - Token Terms & Conditions

Email: sales@primepathcapital.ca

Website: www.primepathcapital.ca

1. Token Purpose & Utility

$PATH is a utility token used solely within the PrimePath Networks platform. It functions like platform credits (e.g., V-Bucks) and is not an investment vehicle.

2. Buyback Clause

PrimePath Networks may offer to buy back $PATH tokens at its discretion. This is optional, based on platform-determined pricing, and not a guaranteed feature.

3. No Guarantee of Profit or Listing

PrimePath Networks does not promise financial gain, price appreciation, or future exchange listings. Any forecasts are speculative.

4. Refund Policy

If the token is not launched by December 31, 2027, 80% of the original purchase amount may be refunded upon request submitted by January 15, 2028.

5. Token Holdings & Custody

Funds collected will be held in Bitcoin (BTC), Solana (SOL), and other assets by a licensed partner broker.

6. Jurisdiction & Restricted Countries

Users in restricted jurisdictions (e.g., USA, Canada) may not participate unless through a compliant agreement. Users must ensure legal compliance and certify their location.

7. KYC Policy

PrimePath Networks - Token Terms & Conditions

KYC is required for any transaction exceeding $1,000 USD. This includes identity and address verification.

8. Acknowledgment & Acceptance

By purchasing $PATH, users confirm they understand these terms and accept the risks involved. PrimePath Networks is not liable for any damages or losses.
